

2006 Music Program

Toronto Chamber Orchestra

Sponsored by Scotiabank Group

Mark Skazinetsky and the Toronto Chamber Orchestra are happy to be back to celebrate the 250th anniversary of one of the world's greatest composers - Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart!

The Toronto Chamber Orchestra consists of some of the best musicians in Canada who perform regularly with major orchestras, ballet and opera companies in Ontario. They are fueled by a passion for the full range of chamber music, and by sharing some of the best of their repertoire with an audience in an intimate atmosphere such as The Cedar Ridge Classical Pops event. Prepare for music that will transport you through time and space.

Join us and delight in Mozart's most popular operas, symphonies and concertos.

The mission of the TCO is:

1. To provide Toronto audiences the opportunity to hear a first rank chamber orchestra in an acoustically excellent environment.
2. To perform the most exciting repertoire written for chamber orchestra of all times.
3. To support and showcase young musicians as extensively as possible.
4. To perform new works by Canadian and other contemporary composers.
5. To present interdisciplinary and community based performances utilizing the TCO.

Soloists

The Three Young Tenors

The Three Young Tenors were brought together by the Royal Conservatory of Music. Salvatore Gambino, Michael Ciufo and Darrell Hicks all attend the Conservatory's Glenn Gould School. Collectively they have performed in over 15 productions including "The Gondoliers" and Mozart's Die Zauberflote. Having sung with the likes of Michael Burgess and in such romantic places as Rome they are delighted to be part of this year "Cedar Ridge Classical Pops" and share their exuberant voices with you.

Heather Bambrick, Jazz vocalist

....more than just a vocalist, she is the brilliant combination of natural stage presence, a beautiful and versatile voice, intelligent musical arrangements and poignant interpretation and delivery. She has entertained standing-room-only audiences at Toronto's best Jazz venues, including the Montreal Bistro and the Top O' the Senator; she has sold-out shows for national and international Jazz festivals; she has appeared on Juno-nominated CDs and with Grammy-nominated artists; she is about to make more waves with her new CD It's About Time.

Lowenna Clarke, Yamaha Music Education's young talent

Lowenna Clarke will be performing her own composition for Disklavier called 'I'm On My Way'. Lowenna Clarke is eight years old, and has been studying music at the Yamaha Music School in Toronto since she was four. In addition to pursuing an interest in music, Lowenna also studies ballet and enjoys reading.

Francis Lee, Yamaha Music Education's young talent

Francis Lee is will also be performing his own composition. He has performed twice in Tokyo at Yamaha's Junior Original Competition as well as all over Canada. When not studying piano Francis pursue his interest in Science.
