

YAMAHA MUSIC SCHOOL STUDENT COMPOSERS

“Memories in the Misty Rain” – Lea Leung (12) Lea started music study at the Yamaha Music School when she was 5. She has performed on many stages around the world and across Canada. In 2003, she performed her piano duet “Butterflies” with a classmate at the Hong Kong Cultural Center in China. In 2005, Lea performed at the Cedar Ridge Pops fundraiser with the string orchestra. In 2006, she performed her concerto for piano and strings “Wonder of the Northern Lights” with maestro Kerry Stratton and the Toronto Philharmonia at the Toronto Performing Arts Centre. Lea has a wide range of interests that include Chinese classical dance, martial arts, and reading.

Pamela Lo (14)

Pamela is 14 years old and is currently finishing Grade 8 at Blaisdale Montessori School. She has been studying music at the Yamaha Music School since she was 4 years old. Though attending a special music program with a focus on piano performance and creativity studies, Pamela started composing at the age of six. This year, Pamela hopes to complete her teacher level piano exams. In addition to playing the piano, Pamela plays the clarinet with her school band. In the fall, Pamela intends to start high school at Havergal College.

In her spare time Pamela enjoys shopping, reading, listening to music, snowboarding, and playing soccer. When she grows up she wants to be a lawyer, an engineer, or an ice cream truck driver.
